PHILLIP SILVERSTONE

Phillip Silverstone grew up in Abbey Road, St. Johns Wood, London and has lived in the Philadelphia area since 1977. Phillip's wine/food/lifestyle features were heard daily on WRTI 90.1 FM (Public Radio Classical/Jazz) for 20 years (it was formerly WFLN 95.7) He wrote and hosted his twice Emmy nominated PBS series "One on Wine". Phillip has been featured on CNN and the Food Network and has been seen and heard throughout the UK on the BBC.

THE SHOW

Phillip interviews international TV and movie and stage actors, film and theatre directors, sports legends, new authors, and musicians. The show also focuses on food and wine and fashion. "Phill & Jill's Brilliant Wine Sketch" features Phill and archeologist/restaurateur Jill Weber. It's an entertaining and engaging segment which always includes 2 affordable wines or beers. Phill's music selection is eclectic, to say the least! and "The Screening Room" is our weekly movie feature, presented by Alessandra Nicole, a photographer, Illustrator, writer, and certifiable cinephile! "Fashion Matters" is a fashion feature co-hosted by Anne Cecil, Director, Design & Merchandising Department at Drexel University, Philadelphia. Craig Snyder, president of The World Affairs Council of Philadelphia presents "World Views" each week and looks at a political issue at home or abroad and explains what it means with an easy to digest approach. "Rachel's Rave Reviews" presented by Rachel Hendrickson, a singer, actress, and model, is our entertainment and lifestyle feature with reviews of current theatrical productions plus, Rachel's other passion: Healthy living ideas.

Cliff Notes is dedicated to the music of British rock music icon, and legend, Sir Cliff Richard and is the result of thousands of Cliff's fans requesting this feature on Phill's show. Sir Cliff is a popular guest of the show.

Thanks to the SPECIAL GUESTS on Phill's show, who then post a link of their conversation to the podcasts, the show is now being downloaded every week by listeners throughout the US and in over 120 countries.

TUNEIN RADIO

A privately held company based in Palo Alto, California founded as RadioTime in Dallas, Texas in 2002. TuneIn offers over 100,000 live global radio stations from every continent and has over two million on-demand programs from podcasts to concerts to interviews. In August 2012, TuneIn announced that its service had 40 million monthly active listeners. RadioTime's database is updated from automatic feeds, content management staff, and user contributions. TuneIn's primary product line, dubbed TuneIn Radio, uses the Radiotime engine in a suite of mobile apps for iOS Android, BlackBerry Samsung, Windows Phone devices and for future console Ouya. TuneIn raised over $47 million in venture funding from Institutional Venture Partners, Sequoia Capital, Google Ventures, General Catalyst Partners, and Jafco Ventures.

TuneIn's website and mobile apps offer the user the ability to listen to streaming audio of thousands of radio networks and radio stations in the United States and worldwide, including AM, FM, HD, LP, digital and internet stations. Additionally, a selection of podcasts are available for streaming. TuneIn Radio is available as an app on all smartphones and tablets, online at tunein.com and on over 200 platforms such as Sonos, Logitech, Samsung TV, Roku, Google TV and the forthcoming Ouya game console. TuneIn's website is currently available in 22 different languages. Each language has its own version of the website with content tailored for the specific language or region.
